We, the Catholic faithful of Yukon and the surrounding areas, comprise Seven Dolors Parish. We have a rich immigrant ancestry and a diverse ethnic heritage where Christian charity prevails. We are committed to the Eucharist, the Good News of Jesus Christ and all teachings of the Catholic Church. We strive to minister to the needs of those we encounter on a daily basis by centering ourselves in worship, participating in the sacramental life of the Church, and performing works of mercy. We seek to build-up the Kingdom of God through stewardship and service under the guidance of our patroness, Mary, the Mother of God.

My Friends and Faith Family at Seven Dolors Parish and St. Edward Parish,

As I look forward to beginning a new assignment, I cannot help but also feel sorrow at parting company with you all. You welcomed me into your parishes with the warmth, with open arms, and I have made many friends. While my stay, my faith journey here has been short, it has also certainly been eventful, and you all have helped me learn and grow much as a deacon and a person. Hopefully during this period while we accompanied each other along our faith journeys I was in some small way also able to help you to draw closer to our Lord and to assist you along your journey. I most humbly thank you all for all your prayers and for all the kindness you have shown me. Please continue to pray for all who answer God's call to serve as Priests and Deacons. You will always be in my prayers.

God Bless,

Deacon John Zombar

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light.

Sometimes it’s difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too.

Abba Father

...hear my call,
My spirit seeks You near,
As temptation tries to lead me
To the place that I most fear.
I pray for strength and courage
To fight the evil prey,
And I’m thankful for Your praise
To be with me every day.
I know that You are there for me
To save me from my sins;
Your loving arms have caught
And held me
Time and time again.
How precious is Your love for me —
How thankful my heart feels —
For the mercy and forgiveness
That You give with grace to heal.

SAINT JUNÍPERO SERRA (1713-1784)-July 1

No one who has stood before the quiet majesty of Mission San Juan Capistrano, or the altogether different but no less lovely Mission Dolores in San Francisco, or any of the missions from San Diego to Sonoma can fail to bless the Franciscan padre who, while not founder of each, was inspiration for them all, Saint Junípero Serra. Abandoning the comfortable academic life to which his doctorate in theology entitled him, Serra journeyed to the New World where his tireless traveling, dramatic preaching, and penitential austerity converted thousands of native peoples. Saving souls and celebrating the sacraments were Padre Serra's primary mission but not his only one. Education in letters and crafts, trades and agriculture transformed the people, while roads and irrigation systems transfigured the landscape. His more than thirty years of ministry were not free from conflict with authorities or without controversy in the retrospectively critical eye of history. But when John Paul II beatified him in 1988, he praised Padre Serra for assisting his converts to use their new faith to advance their true human development.

A Little History on Independence Day

Independence Day (colloquially the Fourth of July or July 4th) is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States, on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared that the thirteen American colonies were no longer subject (and subordinate) to the monarch of Britain, King George III, and were now united, free, and independent states. The Congress had voted to declare independence two days earlier, on July 2, but it was not declared until July 4.

Independence Day is commonly associated with fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, fairs, picnics, concerts, baseball games, family reunions, political speeches, and ceremonies, in addition to various other public and private events celebrating the history, government, and traditions of the United States. Independence Day is the national day of the United States.
