We, the Catholic faithful of Yukon and the surrounding areas, comprise Seven Dolors Parish. We have a rich immigrant ancestry and a diverse ethnic heritage where Christian charity prevails. We are committed to the Eucharist, the Good News of Jesus Christ and all teachings of the Catholic Church. We strive to minister to the needs of those we encounter on a daily basis by centering ourselves in worship, participating in the sacramental life of the Church, and performing works of mercy. We seek to build-up the Kingdom of God through stewardship and service under the guidance of our patroness, Mary, the Mother of God.

Dear Seven Dolors Parishioners,
Greetings.

I will be away the for retreat from Monday, October 26 to Saturday, October 31. Each priest and religious is required to make a retreat at least once a year. Please keep me in your prayers during the retreat.

I hope that you and your families are well.

If you got a chance to read the Sunday paper, and looked one of the back pages, you found some, shall we say, less that encouraging news. In Italy and Spain, the intensive care units are once again filling up with coronavirus cases. I had spoken with my relatives in Italy last week and that was the news they gave me. They still have very strict rules in effect – and have gone backwards in some respects. They are limiting the number of people in stores and have to let people in as others come out. All this points to one thing: just because we are sick and tired of the virus, that doesn't mean it is all over.

All of the parishioners are grateful that we are having such a high level of cooperation with social distancing and face coverings. Thank you, thank you.

This pandemic has presented many challenges that we have never dealt with in the past.

Let's pull together! These times are tough for all of us. But - as the saying goes - WITH GOD'S HELP, TOGETHER WE CAN DO IT!

Peace and blessing to all.

Fr. Richard, OSB

World Mission Sunday

Today the diocese will celebrate World Mission Sunday. The Pope asks us to respond through prayer and generous sacrifice to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The theme of this year's celebration can be each individual's answer: "Here AM I, Send Me."

Prayer and material support will sustain priests, religious, and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe.

Please be generous.

Novena to our Lady

Join the continuous Our Lady of Perpetual Help novena on Mondays at 8:45 AM.

Anointing of the Sick and Holy Communion

Please contact the parish office if you know a parishioner who does not attend Mass due to illness and would like to receive the sacraments.

Shut-ins and Homebound

Please remember in your prayers our parishioners who are not able to attend Mass because they are ill or homebound.

Sanctuary Candle

If you would like to burn the Sanctuary Candle for a special intention, or in memory of a loved one, please call the parish office.

The donation to burn the candle one week is $20.

Religious Education Classes Grades 1-5

Classes for Grades 1-5 will be held every other Monday in the St. Edward School Building from 6:00 PM-7:30 PM.

The next evening of classes will be held Monday, October 26.

All of the necessary CDC guidelines will be in place to keep our children safe.

Middle Youth Ministry Grades 6-8

Youth Ministry classes will be held every other Monday from 6:00 PM-7:30 PM in St. Edward.

We Remember
Please remember in your prayers Janet Boris and Helen Hensberger who were buried this past week.
Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Oblates of St. Benedict Present Program on Benedictine Values

The Oblates of St. Benedict, Latrobe Deanery, will meet October 18 from 3:00 PM-4:15 PM in the Archabbey Basilica Crypt (maximum 25 people). Benedictine Father Anthony Grossi, manager of Saint Vincent Book Center, will speak on “Obedience in Benedictine Spirituality.” Attendees must wear masks. The event ends with dinner at 5:40 PM in the Fred Rogers Center. The next regular meeting will be November 15 at 3:00 PM with Benedictine Father Shawn Matthew Anderson speaking on “Hospitality in Benedictine Spirituality.” Reservations: Benedictine Father Donald Ralla, (724) 805-2291.

Words and Actions
When people hear us speak God’s word, they marvel at its beauty and power; when they see what little impact it has on our daily lives, they laugh and poke fun at what we say.

IN GOD ALONE

Isaiah speaks to us today of Cyrus, King of Persia, anointed by the Lord. God calls Cyrus by name and leads him in service to the Israelites. In this passage we hear that it is the Lord who gives Cyrus his title, who arms him against his enemies, and who opens doors and unbars gates before him. And God does all of this so that the people will know that "I am the LORD," and that "there is none besides me" (Isaiah 45:6).

Paul opens his letter with essentially the same notion—that in God alone we find our grace and peace. Paul also gives thanks to God on our behalf, calling to mind our work of faith, hope, and love. And in the familiar Gospel reading, Jesus tells the Pharisees to give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's.
